EDITORIAL

Journal of Widya Medika Junior Volume 3 No. 4, October 2021, is our twelfth publication since we established this journal to provide a publication avenue for our students to share the work they do during their studies, in hope to cultivate their passion in research and scientific publication. It is a special edition contains four student research articles, from other Medical Faculties (Christian Indonesia University, Alauddin University, Tarumanegara University and Jenderal Achmad Yani University) who participated in medical student research competition in the context of 10th Anniversary of Widya Mandala Surabaya Catholic University. We also open for manuscript submission from other health sciences for vocational and undergraduate student of faculty of medicine.

The articles on geriatric medicine discussed risk of fall and chair based exercise; septic arthritis after total knee replacement. Articles on family medicine discussed magnesium level and acne vulgaris; gross motor skill and breastmilk; nutrition status in covid 19 pandemic; preeclampsia-eclampsia and caesarean; biomarker of atherosclerosis in covid 19. Other topics also included in this issue: african bitter leave extract and seminiferous tubules. We hope these articles can prove to be a meaningful contribution to medical knowledge and the society, as this journal continuous to be mature and reach wider audience.
